

Procedure by Polina Kanis (2017) Online film program / Other Zones

Procedure by Polina Kanis (2017)

In The Procedure (2017), Polina Kanis takes a fictional museum building as the starting point for her meditations on collectivity and division. Lying in ruins after an unknown disaster, any attempts to ascertain what has happened to the building elicit the same response from the people interviewed: “I saw nothing.”